May Holy Mary, the Angels and all the Saints welcome Bernadette Thor a parishioner.

May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God Rest In Peace.

May your family find comfort in knowing that their loved one is safe in God's care now, and that her friends are praying for you in your time of sorrow.

S. Joanne Poehlman, SSND, faculty member in Sociology at Mount Mary University, received the Dick Ringler Peace Educator award from the Wisconsin Institute for Peace and Conflict Studies.

Congratulations, Sister Joanne, on your achievement!

Prayer, Service & Sharing

"What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" Mat. 16-26 St. Francis of Assisi once said, "Remember, you are what you are in the eyes of God, and nothing else." We often forget this stewardship wisdom when we spend all of our time, talent and treasure to gain more of the world's riches. We need to set our priorities based on God's values and not the values of the material world.

Welcome David Liccione

Our New Shared Parish Director of Faith Formation!

We are so happy to announce our new parish director of faith formation, Mr. Dave Liccione. Dave will direct the Christian formation program incorporating the efforts of our cluster parishes (St. Margaret Mary and Blessed Savior) and he will direct and oversee our programs of religious education and sacramental prep for both parishes. This is a new undertaking, a new effort with the intent to share resources, space, campuses and the formation of our youngsters.

Dave has recently retired from teaching high school as well as an athletic coaching career. From childhood, Dave has been a dedicated catholic, Marquette alum, and Northwestern U grad! How lucky are we?

We are convinced Dave is a God-send to our parishes and the very best foot forward as we incorporate efforts and energy to collaborate as sister parishes in this corner of God's vineyard of the Milwaukee Archdiocese.

In the coming weeks, we will introduce Dave to our parish communities at the weekend masses. He will set up camp at both parish sites, take the time needed to get to know our communities, and begin the process of establishing shared Christian formation opportunities within our two parish families.

We anticipate Dave will have an office, website, email, and phone number as the identity of his work unfolds in the months to come.

Please be sure to warmly welcome Dave, a man of faith, who joins us in our own faith journey here at Blessed Savior and St. Margaret Mary parishes.

Your pastors, Father Romanus and Father Mike

Dave Liccione

A lifelong Milwaukee resident, Dave attended St. Eugene grade school and Marquette High School. He earned his undergraduate degree from Northwestern University, teacher certification from Marquette U., and Masters Degree in Administrative Leadership from UWM.

Dave taught Social Studies for 25 years and, during that time, he served as a Catechist at both Holy Family and St. Monica parishes in Whitefish Bay for 11 years. He comes to us from St. Boniface parish in Germantown where he served as the Director of Faith Formation. Dave has been married for over 25 years to his wife Anne, a middle school teacher and, together, they have two children, Bill, 24, and Sarah, 22.

Dear Parishioners, Happy Labor Day:

Our nation celebrates Labor Day this Monday in accord with an annual tradition that dates back over a century. The idea was first conceived by Peter J. McGuire, the radical founder of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of New York. It was first celebrated in New York City on September 5, 1882, sponsored by the Knights of Labor. Two years later, in 1884, the Labor Unions of New York held a parade on the first Monday of September and called it annual Labor Day celebration. The agitation in New York soon spread to Labor Unions in other states who staged vigorous campaigns to establish Labor Day as a legitimate holiday honoring workers.

Faced with increased unrest from Labor Unions in an election year, Congress passed a bill declaring the first Monday in September a national holiday honoring workers. President Grover Cleveland reluctantly signed the bill in 1894 as an election-year compromise. By the time Labor Day was established as a national holiday, thirty states had already recognized and legitimized Labor Day as a civic holiday.

One of the events that directly impacted the recognition of Labor Day as a national holiday was the Pullman crisis of 1893, which took place in Pullman, Illinois. Caught in the economic depression of 1893, George Pullman, founder and president of the Pullman Company (a railroad sleeping car company) was forced to drastically cut wages and benefits, and lay off many workers. Unable to endure the hardship, the remaining employees went on strike, demanding higher wages and better benefits.

The American Railway Union joined the cause of the striking workers in Pullman. President Grover Cleveland declared the strike a federal crime and deployed 12,000 troops to break it up. On August 3, 1894, the strike was declared over, but not before two men lost their lives when deputy marshals fired on protesters in Kensington, Illinois. A week after the crackdown, President Cleveland signed the bill establishing Labor Day as a national holiday.

The Church strongly supports the rights of workers and stresses the spirituality of work. Catholic social teaching on the rights of workers dates back to an encyclical published in 1891 by Pope Leo XIII entitled Rerum Novarum. It advocates just wages for workers and the need for better conditions of work. Arguably this encyclical emboldened workers to fight for their rights and may have contributed to the establishment of Labor Day. Other papal encyclicals have continued to advocate the rights and responsibilities of workers.

Wishing everyone happy Labor Day!
