Pastor's Sunday Reflection

Reflection for the Thirty-Third Sunday

In today's gospel, Jesus speaks sobering words about the destruction of the Temple and the trials his followers will face. While the disciples marvel at the Temple's beauty, Jesus sees beyond the stones to remind us that earthly grandeur is temporary. His prophecy of wars, earthquakes, and persecution isn't meant to frighten us, but to prepare us for discipleship in a world that often resists God's truth. Jesus promises that even when we're brought before authorities or betrayed by loved ones, he will give us the words and wisdom we need. The assurance that "not a hair of your head will be destroyed" speaks to God's intimate care for us, even when circumstances seem overwhelming. Our call is to persevere, trusting that God works through our witness, especially in difficult times. These trials become opportunities to testify to the hope that cannot be shaken by earthly turmoil. By our endurance, Jesus promises, we will secure our lives—not in worldly safety, but in the eternal security of God's love.

Blessings,

Fr Mark

Hello Fellow Parishioners,

We are embarking on a thorough Fall Cleaning and need some volunteers to help with the various tasks. We are looking to see what we should keep, donate to another church (perhaps a mission church), replace due to wear and tear or organize in a better way. We need both parishioners who are aware of history and parishioners who can just physically help. If interested, please call the parish office and leave your name and contact info with Doyin. Thank you!
