Pastor's Sunday Reflection

Reflection on the Feast of Christ the King

On this Solemnity of Christ the King, we contemplate a paradox that transforms our understanding of power and majesty: our King reigns from a cross. While the crowds mock Jesus and challenge Him to save Himself, one criminal sees what others cannot—the truth of Christ's kingship revealed not in worldly power but in divine mercy. This thief, facing his own death, recognizes Jesus as the only one who can grant entry into an eternal kingdom, and his simple prayer, "Jesus, remember me," becomes the perfect act of faith. Christ's response, "Today you will be with me in Paradise," demonstrates that His kingdom is open to all who turn to Him, regardless of their past or their final moments. The scene reveals that Christ's throne is the cross, His crown is made of thorns, and His royal decree is one of forgiveness and salvation. We celebrate today that our King does not rule by force or domination but by love that conquers death itself. As we profess Christ's kingship over all creation, we are called to follow a King who serves, suffers, and saves. May we, like the repentant thief, look beyond worldly definitions of power and recognize the true majesty of sacrificial love.

Blessings,

Fr Mark

Hello Fellow Parishioners,

We are embarking on a thorough Fall Cleaning and need some volunteers to help with the various tasks. Since many of you have worked behind the scenes, you know the significance of items we brought from the various parishes in the merger 12 years ago. We are looking to see what we should keep, donate to another church (perhaps a mission church), replace due to wear and tear or organize in a better way. We need both parishioners who are aware of history and parishioners who can just physically help. If interested, please call the parish office and leave your name and contact info with Doyin. Thank you!

Br. Joe Pense is available to visit those that no longer can make it to mass at their residence. He will bring a listening ear and Eucharist. Br. Joe's background is working in community mental health and is available to meet with those that would like a visit. Please contact him at jpense@stmp.org
