STEWARDSHIP

Managing God's Gifts To Us

God has promised to return the gifts that are returned to Him. It is a never-ending circle. We receive gifts from God; we return them with increase. Not to be outdone, God returns them back to us. The more we give away, the more we are blessed. This is not the reason stewards give, it is the result of giving.

Gospel Meditation

Jesus names many types of blessed people in today's Gospel. Let us call to mind holy people who fall into each category.

"Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for
righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of
righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.

Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward will be great in heaven."

Live the Liturgy Inspiration for the Week

Every day, God offers each of us countless opportunities to embody the Beatitudes. Blink and you might miss them.

- ♦ Where is God inviting you to poverty of spirit?
- ♦ Where does he beg you to hunger for righteousness?
- ♦ How does he ask you to make peace?

Catholic Schools Week 2023 January 29th - February 4th

As we celebrate Catholic Schools Week, we pray for our teachers, principals, students and their parents, for mentors and all those in supportive roles, that we may continually guide, look after and encourage the children entrusted to our care.

South Campus School

As I walked into school this morning I was greeted by the picture you see below. I had to take a moment and reflect on what we have done this year to grow as a school community. I remember the first time I walked through the door in June when the kids weren't here, the teachers were on break, and it was just me and Ms. Kasten, Administrative Assistant and I said I want to walk in and see happiness.

I have felt that feeling grow throughout the year from the colorful streamers at the beginning, to the Christmas color chains we just took down. The difference in our current mobiles isn't just the bright colors or the change in decoration, but it is in the words the students included as they wrote about their dreams for our world, community and themselves to be better. I am proud of each and every one of OUR children. When I see these beautiful mobiles, my happiness extends to the joy I have being a part of each of their lives. Thank you for sharing your child with us.

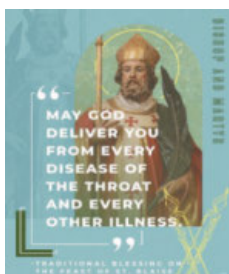

- Renee Manikham, South Campus Principal

World Day for Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church on Thursday, February 2, 2023, and in parishes over the weekend of February 4-5, 2023.

Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.
