15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. - Mk 6:7, 13

Fr. Romanus, staff and Blessed Savior parishioners express our sympathy to the family of

Donald Naegele, husband of Ginny Naegele

May he find peace and happiness with our Lord Jesus in heaven. May God comfort those who mourn him and all who suffer the loss of a loved one. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen

Celebrating St. Joseph

The Archdiocese of Milwaukee has provided us with lovely St. Joseph prayer cards as we celebrate the Year of St. Joseph, which was declared by Pope Francis. These are available on the round table in the Villard hallway. Additional prayer and study resources about St. Joseph may be found at www.archmil.org/St-Joseph.

Also available is "Living the Gift of Sunday" a theological reflection commissioned by Archbishop Listecki, which contains 10 weeks of Sunday reflections. Copies are available in the Villard hallway and at the east and west church door entrances.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel - and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the "road less traveled." Imagine those first disciples going out and into people's homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. If we are really interested in seeing God's vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence.

If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That's a risk God asks us to take.

A memorial donation of $915 has been given to Blessed Savior Parish in memory of Gary Gabrich. An anonymous donation of $1,000 has been given to Blessed Savior's music ministry in memory of Frank Troyer. $200 has been received in memory of Ginny Schimmels. The parish is grateful for these generous gifts. May the souls of Gary, Frank and Ginny rest in the peace of the Lord.

$5,000 has been received from Jack and Katie Pankratz. We are very grateful for this contribution and to all who contributed towards our request for additional support to help our parish with our 2020-2021 budget shortfall. Many, many thanks!
