The Pope's Prayer Intention for July 2023

- For a Eucharistic Life

We pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a very deep way and opening to the encounter with God and all their brothers and sisters.

A special welcome to any visitors who are joining us in worship today. We invite you to join us again.

Gospel Meditation

Do you ever feel restless? I certainly do. Daily tasks and challenges, but also the more basic demand of simply existing. Sooner or later, this can all feel crushing and tire us out.

Which is why Jesus' words are such stunningly good news: "Come to me all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). How vastly weird that this man speaks as though he is capable of giving us the deep repose we desire. Is his claim the height of absurd grandiosity? No, because next he immediately proclaims that he is "meek and humble of heart." We here touch a mystery: Jesus is capable of giving us rest because he is the one who forever reposes in the heart of God the Father. He is "yoked" to the Father in his divinity. But he is humbly "yoked" to us, sharing in our humanity.

The good news, my fellow tired-out friends: we don't have to despair in our burdens and exhaustion, no matter how heavy they feel. This week, join me in opening our hearts to hear him say to us, "Come! I will give you rest." We come to him in the Church, Eucharist, the Scriptures, prayer, in the poor. There he will give us rest.

Live the Liturgy
Inspiration for the Week

The Christian life does not require wisdom, charisma, or strength — no, quite the opposite. To be Christian, we must embrace our faults, our littleness, our shortcomings — gather them up, and lay them all at the feet of Jesus. There, they will be transformed.

Good Stewardship

Being good stewards means that we use our gifts and resources to achieve the goals of our faith in our day-to-day lives. Our abilities, time and treasures all can be used to bring the Gospel message to others; a message of faith, hope and love.

Using the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy as a guide, we can look for way to practice what we preach. To test our stewardship, we can ask a few questions. How well do I use my gifts? How can I help advance the Gospel? How well do I share God’s goodness to me with others? Being a good steward helps me keep God first in my life.

Corporal Works of Mercy

- Feed the hungry
- Give drink to the thirsty
- Clothe the naked
- Visit prisoners
- Shelter the homeless
- Visit the sick
- Bury the dead

Spiritual Works of Mercy

- Admonish the sinner
- Teach the ignorant
- Counsel the doubtful
- Comfort the suffering
- Be patient with others
- Forgive those who have offended you
- Pray for the living and the dead

V. John Augustus (Gus) Tolton

Venerable John Augustus (Gus) Tolton was born on April 1, 1854 into slavery and escaped with his mother early in his life. He went to seminary in Rome and returned to the U.S. to form a black national church in Chicago.

In 1897, at age 43, Fr. Augustus Tolton died of heat stroke. The sudden tragedy left his whole community shocked and saddened. His legacy, however, lives on and he was declared Venerable by Pope Francis in June of 2019. He is considered to be the first priest in the USA who was publicly known to be black.
