Prayer for the Holy Trinity

Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Spirit, in you is the sum of all knowledge, all wisdom, and all understanding. Holy Father, you created me, sent your Son to redeem me, and sent the Holy Spirit to sanctify me.

Grant, Holy Trinity, that as I meditate on the mystery of your existence, I will gain insights to the mystery of the life you have given me. Grant that as I strive to master myself that I will live ever more entirely in accordance with your own divine and ever perfect will. Amen.

Come Pray the Rosary

Members of Blessed Savior Parish pray the rosary together every Sunday at 8:15am before Mass. We sit in the front pews of church. All are welcome!

Dear Parishioners,*Most Holy Trinity:

This Sunday is the celebration of the Most Holy Trinity, which is one of the fundamental beliefs of the Church. The doctrine of the Holy Trinity states that there are three persons in one God (expressed in Greek as hypostasis), namely; the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The three co-exist in absolute harmonious relationship and share one nature (essence). The unity of the three persons is often designated in scholarly circles as “hypostatic union.”

Many have tried to dissect the inner workings of this divine relationship with little success. The failure to fully comprehend the nature of the divine relationship underscores the fact that we are dealing with mystery, that is, the mystery of God. Limited human intelligence is incapable of fully grasping the overwhelming mystery of God. The doctrine of the Holy Trinity is not a proposition to be broken down, but a mystery to be lived. The much we know about God is essentially through revelation and the mediation of Jesus Christ.

Christian faith in the Trinity is often designated as Trinitarianism, in contrast to Unitarianism, a belief in one God and one Person. Unitarianism should not be confused with Monotheism, a belief in one God, which is a fundamental part of our Christian faith. Unitarianism also differs from Binitarianism, a belief in one God and two persons. In contrast to Catholic belief, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints views the Trinity as three divine persons with three separate natures as opposed to one nature, sharing one purpose.

It is important to note that we were baptized in the name of the Holy Trinity because we are a Trinitarian Church. The trinitarian baptismal formulation is in accord with Jesus’ mandate to his disciples to baptize in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit (Mt. 28:18-20). Hence, any baptism performed without that formula could not be valid in the Catholic Church. It also explains why we do not re-baptize people from other Christian denominations who convert to the Catholic Church.

Furthermore, the Holy Trinity is the foundation of our prayers. That is why our prayers begin with an invocation of the Trinity. In a public space, it is one clear evidence that someone is Catholic. Unfortunately, some are hesitant to publicly identify as Catholic or even as persons of faith. The myriad distractions in daily life make it difficult to focus on what really matters in the long run. Michael Downey in a symposium on “Being missionaries to our own children,” invites a reflection on this theme when he asks, “How do we speak of God inside a culture that is pathologically distracted, distrusts religious language and church institutions, and yet carries its own moral energy and virtues?” The shame associated with public prayers in some circles, especially among the young, reflect an understanding of “cool” that has nothing in common with religion. This could be overcome by highlighting the immanence of God than the transcendence of God. Jesus is the lynch pin in unpacking the transcendence of God by revealing God as love. It would be easier to speak of God in terms of relationship than in mysterious terms. It is the sort of language that even the young could relate to.

The harmonious relationship of the Trinity is a model for Christian relationships. Harmonious relationship is more than tolerating others, but involves a willingness to love everyone unconditionally, understanding that no one is perfect, including you. We will live in harmony when we recognize there are more than unite than divide us. Racism is about a mindset that is manifested in attitude. Changing the attitude begins with changing the mindset. Only then will one begin to see with a new pair of lenses.

Have a great week!

Fr. Romanus

Yolanda Coly - Thank You & Farewell

As you are aware Yolanda and her family are leaving Blessed Savior Parish and Wisconsin in early June. Yolanda's leadership of the Council and her involvement in numerous other areas of the Parish, Community, and the Archdiocese will be gratefully missed. A Surprise Appreciation & Farewell Event in Mass and in a Gathering thereafter planned by the Pastoral Council scheduled for a prior Sunday Mass had to be cancelled due to a health issue.

The Parishioners, Staff, Council Members, etc. can still share their appreciation, good wishes, etc. by sending an email to Yolanda at the following email address (parish@blessedsavior.org), and /or can send a card or note addressed to Yolanda at the Parish mailing address (Parish Office/Center, 8607 W. Villard Ave., Milwaukee, WI 53225). All e-mails and cards and notes will then be forwarded to Yolanda.

Thank You from the Coly Family

As many of you are aware our family is relocating out of state, and we wanted you all to know how important you have been to us. We could have written individual letters but it's more than individual, it's Catholic. We have benefitted thoroughly from the love and care of each of you living into your baptism.

We have joyfully shared our family's talents for over two decades. Starting with Corpus Christi Catholic Church. Including our full leadership participation of the merger of four parishes into one which became Blessed Savior Catholic Church. What we have shared with you pales to what you all have shared with us and we thank you for that.

Anyone who comes across racism in any form in this community should "nip it in the bud." That is not what Blessed Savior is all about. Let us continue to be a welcoming community of love for all.

Lastly, we will keep you in our prayers and hope we are in yours during this wonderful journey. We will fly in from time to time to worship with you.

Peace to all of our Blessed Savior Family
