THE POPES INTENTION FOR NOVEMBER
Universal: In the Service of Peace
That the language of love and dialogue may always prevail over the language of conflict.

GOSPEL MEDITATION "You are not far from the kingdom of God." What does it mean to be close to God's kingdom? In today's Gospel, Jesus is in a dialogue with teachers of the law. They know well the Law of Moses, with its complex codes, expectations, and punishments. What will Jesus say?

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength ... You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Jesus effortlessly distills all the books of law into two commands. The simplicity of the Gospel message doesn't mean it's easy to follow. Far from it! The simplicity of the Gospel indicates its totality. Anything that requires the passions of our heart, the choice of our soul, the reason in our mind, or the strength of our body - all of this ought to be animated by love. As you can imagine, that means pretty much everything! The love of God and love of neighbor is meant to flow into our entire lives.

The Gospel can appear complicated because life is complicated. Not every outcast is easy to love. We lack the knowledge or compassion to heal everyone who suffers. Personal sacrifice is not always noticed or valued. In the face of the unknown, fear can be easier than faith. Life's circumstances can seem like obstacles to God's love, not opportunities. And yet Jesus' command still stands. As you reflect this week, examine those areas where it's easy to love. Thank God for them! But take some time to consider the people and circumstances that challenge you. Ask God to show you what it means to love. How is He inviting you to enlarge your heart, strengthen your soul, open your mind, and persevere in your strength? How is He inviting you to love? Liturgical Publications

2018 Stewardship Pledge Growing Our Faith Through Generosity

True stewardship calls us to recognize one simple yet profound truth: everything we have comes from God. Everything we "own" is really on loan from Him. This is what makes us stewards. As we grow in our understanding of true stewardship we recognize everything as a gift.

Our 2018 Stewardship Pledge will start on November 10 & 11. Please stop in the Villard hallway after Mass next weekend to pick up your stewardship pledge envelope. This will help us save on postage costs. You can return your stewardship pledge card on "Commitment Weekends" – November 24 & 25 and December 1 & 2.

Remember Blessed Savior Parish

After your loved one's funeral Mass at Blessed Savior Parish, many people offer money for the wishes of the family, church memorials or Mass intentions. Money given as a memorial is used for church ministry and we are always grateful for that gift. Money given for a Mass intention(s) is a beautiful way to remember the goodness and generosity of those who have died. An offering for Mass is a gift for the community who prays it, whether family is present or not. Mass is offered with gratitude as a way of giving thanks for that person's life and the impact that life has had on you. Moreover, our prayers for the deceased is an appeal for God's Mercy and speeds their way to heaven. The amount of a Mass offering is $10.

2019 MASS INTENTION BOOK WILL OPEN ON NOVEMBER 7. IF YOU WISH TO HAVE A MASS SAID
FOR A LOVED ONE, CALL EILEEN AT THE PARISH OFFICE, 464-5033, EXT. 11. 5 Mass Intentions are permitted per person (2 on a weekend and 3 during the week.) The stipend for Mass remains at $10. It is IT IS

National Vocations Awareness Week,
Nov. 4-10, As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life. Some remain as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations - and teaching young people how to discern God's call - is a serious duty, but also a joyful one.
Today begins National Vocation Awareness Week. During this week please pray for vocations, and pray about how God is calling you to live your vocation more deeply.
Encourage the young people in your lifechildren, grandchildren, students and friends to be open if God calls them to the priesthood or religious life. For more information about vocation events or discernment resources visit thinkpriest.org, or contact the Vocation Office at vocationoffice@sfs.edu.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! To all the Parish members who donated school supplies to our school. You have helped us get off to a great start this school year! We truly appreciate all the donations. Sincerely, the students and staff at Blessed Savior Catholic School, South, East, and West Campuses.
